

Higher Education Planning in Asia Forum Tour of Hong Kong on 28 March 2012

Forum participants are invited to join one of the following tours. Please indicate your choice with the reply slip.

Option 1: ALiVE in Hong Kong Science Park (2-4pm)

ALiVE is an interdisciplinary research initiative of the School of Creative Media of City University of Hong Kong. It is an incubator and innovations showcase for new forms of creativity at the cutting edge of digital media in society. This exhibition is a unique occasion to experience nine spectacular immersive installations that are at the frontiers of art and science. It features ground-breaking interactive works by world renowned artists, showing recent research advances. For details, please visit: <http://www.cityu.edu.hk/scm/alive/>

Owing to the space of the lab, this tour can accommodate maximum 15 people.

Option 2: Popular tourist attractions in Hong Kong (2-6pm)

(a) The Peak

The Peak is one of the most popular attractions in Hong Kong. It is an amazing collection of unique must-visit attractions, providing you with a diverse fun-filled experience of Hong Kong's living culture. The Peak offers spectacular views of the city and its harbours. The Peak Tower has a dazzling array of restaurants, shops and entertainment venues. Please visit: <http://www.thepeak.com.hk/> for more information.

(b) Stanley Market

Situated on Hong Kong Island's southern part, Stanley is best known for its market. It is a good place to find special gifts for friends and relatives, with numerous bargains including clothing, souvenirs, antiques, and Chinese arts and crafts. Stanley also has beautiful beaches that are popular with windsurfers. In addition, you can find many bars and great restaurants to enjoy.
